WHEREAS, in accordance with Section 36 of the City of North Miami ("City") Charter ("Charter"), regular elections for Councilmembers, Mayor and City Clerk shall be held on the second Tuesday in May in odd-numbered years; and

WHEREAS, Sections 6-76 and 6-78 of the City Code of Ordinances ("Code"), mirror the City Charter in that they provide for the timing of regular elections to fill the office of Councilmembers, Mayor and City Clerk, to be held in odd-numbered years on the second Tuesday in May; and

WHEREAS, Section 6-76 of the Code, further provides for runoff elections to be held on the first Tuesday in June, in the event no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast in the regular election; and

WHEREAS, Section 100.3605(2), Florida Statutes (2014), authorizes the City to change by ordinance, the dates for qualifying and for the election of members of the governing body of the City and to provide for the orderly transition of office resulting from such date changes; and

WHEREAS, Section 101.75(3), Florida Statutes (2014), further provides that, notwithstanding any provision of local law or municipal charter, the City Council may, by ordinance, move the date of any municipal election to a date concurrent with any statewide or county wide election, and the dates for qualifying for the election moved by the passage such ordinance shall be specifically provided for in the ordinance; and

WHEREAS, Section 166.021(4), Florida Statutes (2014), secures the City's broad exercise of home rule powers granted by the Florida Constitution, and thereby extends to the City the exercise of powers for municipal governmental, corporate, or proprietary purposes not expressly prohibited by the constitution, general or special law, or county charter; and

WHEREAS, the Florida Attorney General has routinely opined that a city may amend its charter by ordinance for the purpose of changing election dates to coincide with federal, state and county elections and to extend the terms of sitting Councilmembers to August (AGO 2013-05; AGO 2007-40; AGO 2007-34; AGO 2001-81; AGO 2000-61); and

WHEREAS, the City Council finds that the City's current general election held in May is funded entirely by the residents of the City and it would be in the public's best interest to reduce taxpayer costs and streamline the election process by moving the City's General Election from May in odd-numbered years to the Tuesday in August ten weeks prior to Miami-Dade County's general election in each even-numbered year so that the City General Election would coincide with the national, gubernatorial and county elections; and

WHEREAS, the City Council further finds that when City elections are held in conjunction with national, gubernatorial and county elections, there is generally a greater number of registered voter participation resulting from the combination of such elections; and

WHEREAS, starting with the 2015 City General Election currently scheduled for May 12, 2015, the City Council desires to change the date of the City's General Election from May 12, 2015 to August 30, 2016, which will extend the corresponding terms of office of sitting Councilmembers, including the Mayor, to coincide with the Miami-Dade County primary election date; and

WHEREAS, on August 30, 2016, the City's General Election will only be held for the Office of the Mayor and the Offices of the Councilmembers for Districts 1 and 4; and

WHEREAS, all subsequent elections will now occur on the Tuesday in August ten weeks prior to Miami-Dade County's general election in each even-numbered year and the date of runoff elections shall occur on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November to coincide with the Miami-Dade County general election date; and

WHEREAS, notwithstanding the extension of terms of office of sitting members of City Council by virtue of moving the dates of elections, no Councilmember including the Mayor, shall serve more than two (2) consecutive terms beginning with the election in 2013, in accordance with Section 101.75(3), Florida Statute (2014) and Section 10(3), City Charter; and

WHEREAS, the City Council finds that moving the dates of City elections to a date concurrent with any statewide or countywide elections in the manner provided herein, is in the best interest of the City.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF NORTH MIAMI, FLORIDA, THAT:
